

Homestead Installment Agreement

Homestead Installment Agreements are for delinquent taxes on a homestead property.

The owner carrying an exemption on the property signs an agreement with the Tax Appraisal District of Bell County to obtain monthly payments on the delinquent taxes for the years requested.

Payments:

Monthly installment agreements can be set up with a minimum of 12 monthly installments. You can pay ahead to reduce the total interest paid.

CONDITIONS:

- ❖ You can only have one installment agreement at a time.
- ❖ All payments must be made by the 28th of each month, and no future taxes can become delinquent while in an installment agreement.
- ❖ If it defaults, you cannot sign up for an installment agreement for 2 years.
